AC 9333-9362. This explains the internal sense of the last part Exodus Chapter 23, which includes what is meant by the Lord driving out the enemies by little and little. The reading ends with the section concerning life on the planets, and "why the Lord willed to be born on our earth, and not on any other." I will be doing a Zoom session in the library. If you want to join in person, we may need a larger venue, so please let me know beforehand. I'll send out a Zoom link the day before and also try to call around before the class. Zoom lets you join by phone as well; for how, see what follows after the link. – Andy
- Wed., October 21* 7:30 P.M. Pastor's Council Meeting (rescheduled from the 8th)
Addition Commons (not the Society Room)

Please don't miss the time change for tonight's society meeting (see above).

Please don't miss no-school for Grades 1-6 tomorrow, Friday, October 16 (see above).

The Best Sort of News: A baby girl was born into the Matthew and Eliza Genzlinger family on Thursday, October 8. Congratulations! We trust she will survive the love and attention of her many Kempton relatives, and we join in giving her a warm welcome. All blessings to you and yours, little lamb! May the Lord protect you always.

Feeding the Genzlingers: The aforementioned happy event gives us a chance to take meals to some of our friends (eight friends exactly). If you would like to support the Genzlingers while baby girl settles in, please go to this link to see details and sign up: www.TakeThemAMeal.com/OKHU5604. You can also go to www.takethemameal.com directly (Recipient's Last Name = Genzlinger. Password = Eliza). Thanks to Kit for setting up the schedule, which shows this Saturday (the 17th) as the first day. You are invited to call Kit, too, if you need to.

Shades of AW! (Soup for Sale !): This Sunday the 18th, from 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. (or until sold out). Two of your favorite soups (one of your favorites being Pumpkin Lentil and your other favorite still being determined) will be available for drive-up contactless purchase. All monies will go toward the uses of the Kempton New Church. Pull up to the church front door and contribute by taking home a little taste of Autumn Weekends. Suggested donation is $8.00 a quart. Please bring a check or the exact change, as change isn't being offered. For special delivery, call Mark Wyncoll (484-809-4022). [Thank you to Mark and all the soup makers 😊.]
