Resurrection Service for Marcia Boyesen: 4:00 P.M. on Saturday, July 10. Marcia's family invites everyone to join in a potluck reception following the service. Please direct any questions about the potluck to Erika Brown. Thank you. [The editors apologize: This notice, with its invitation, was accidentally cut out of the Worship section in the June/July newsletter. Thank you to the Boyesens. We look forward to celebrating Marcia's life, both natural and eternal, with friends and her family.]

Another Graduate! Rebekah King received an AAS in Computer-Generated Animation and Digital Arts from Lehigh Carbon Community College in December 2020. We had meant to list her with all the graduates in the newsletter last week, so our congratulations are late. But they are nonetheless warm! Well done, Rebekah.

Sunday Soccer Will be at 3:00! Weather permitting, I will host a soccer game open to all ages and skill levels at 3:00 P.M. every Sunday from June until about the end of October. – Jordan Cooper

Celebrating July 4th on the 4th on Chris and Heather Smiths' Property: The Smiths say, "Sometime after 3:00 P.M." Pavilion provided in case of rain 😊. BYO picnic and potluck desserts. If anyone wants to add to the placing of the flag, saying the pledge, and the singing (time not specified) by heading up some fun and games (races, parade, volleyball, etc.), please call the Smiths. If a schedule emerges, a group email will go out from this office giving the details. You can also swim at Robertsons' pond at any time during the day. Thanks again to the Smiths and the Robertsons!
