Thank You: The Eugene O. Muth, Jr. family would like to extend their warmest thanks to all who so kindly shared the celebration of Gene's passing into his new life. And special thanks to Rev. Brett Buick for his wonderfully consoling words. – Andri, Lara, Tripp and Hayden

Autumn Weekends: The sign-up form for volunteering is up on the KNC website – <https://kemptonnewchurch.org>. Just follow the maple leaves. We have three weekends this year, October 9th/10th, 16th/17th, and 23rd/24th. We'll be open from 11:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. We're looking for captains, kitchen helpers, cashiers, grillmeisters, bakers, and soup makers. As a reminder, we are asking those handling food this year to wear masks since we are serving the public. If you want to volunteer in a different way, please reach out to Kit Cooper, Torrey Cooper, or Leesa Cooper. And of course, if you can't volunteer, please come join us for good food and good company. See you all there! – Kit

Helping an Afghan Refugee Family: My Afghan friends in Philadelphia are hosting an Afghan refugee family. There are eight family members, the youngest being six years old. The father is still in the Panjshir Valley, fighting the Taliban. The family had to make three attempts to get past the Taliban checkpoints before making it into the airport, and slept on garbage while waiting to be evacuated. They escaped with only backpacks. Needless to say, it's been a traumatic time for them. If you'd like to assist them, please contact me Thursday or Friday [today or tomorrow]; I'm hoping to visit them Saturday morning. Cash would be most practical, but I would consider receiving other very compact, easily transportable items. Thanks! Ben Pendleton

Seeking a Ride: I need a ride to a doctor's office in Fogelsville on Tuesday, September 21. The appointment is for 11:15 A.M. Probably be an hour or less. Near Weiss Market on Route 100. Thanks for your help. – Joan Tuccio

[Repeat] Basket for Baby: Kendal and Linnea King are expecting their first child! If you would like to help them prepare, I am putting together a gift basket for baby that you will find in the church kitchen throughout September. Thank you! – Eden Lumsden

Solar-Energy Information Event: 7:00 P.M., Wednesday, September 15, Kempton Fire Company. Free. Having to do with solar-energy production in Albany Township. This is not an official township hearing, but rather an educational event put on by the Albany Township Environmental Advisory Council to explore the opportunities and problems associated with such installations – particularly the so-called “grid-level” facilities, which involve large amounts of acreage. All – including those from other townships – are encouraged to attend. You're welcome to call me with any questions. – Tom Kerr (EAC member)
