Autumn Weekends News: I am happy to announce that our first weekend – even with nonstop grey weather – produced a whopping $3000! Thank you to everyone involved. It was a lot of fun with a lot of heaven being made, complete with a choir of angels singing in the kitchen with angelic ukulele accompaniment. The closing crew got the ultimate compliment from Aileen Synnstedt (top A.W. Cleanmeister) with her saying the kitchen looked gorgeous!! Wow! The schedule is filling out nicely (except for Saturday afternoon). Please consider the following:

Saturday, October 9:

- 1 opening for a Half Captain – 1st shift (10:00 A.M. to 2:30 P.M.). Lots of capable people have already signed up to work this morning, so you needn't be hesitant!
- 4 openings – 2nd shift (2:30 to 6:30 P.M.). This means we have NO ONE to run the booth at this time (Calvin and I cannot be there then).
- Grillmeister – 1st shift (11:00 A.M. to 2:30 P.M.) and 2nd shift (2:30 to 6:30 P.M.)

Sunday, October 10:

- 1 opening – Assist with opening before church (9:00 to 10:00 A.M.). That's it!

Non-Booth Need:

We need to borrow two propane grill tanks for this weekend and the next.
Thanks – Maggie

New Contact Info:

If you would like to have them, please contact me at the church office for Jessica and Dedan King's new address and Roxanne Genzlinger's cell number to add to your directory. – Carla Kerr

A Date's Been Set for Caleb's Café! We will be opening our doors at 7:00 A.M. on Monday, October 25. Days and hours of operation will initially be Monday, Tuesday, and Friday from 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. Come get coffee and a treat to go, or plan to stay and visit with a friend! We will be serving hot coffee, lattes (hot and iced), and an assortment of baked goods – including a gluten-free option. We are SO grateful to the church and our community for your outpouring of support and enthusiasm! This wouldn't be possible without it! Please feel free to call with any questions. – Roxanne Genzlinger
