Very Best Wishes: Wyatt John van Zyverden, infant son of Gerald and Jenna, was baptized on January 16.

[The Lord] will not suffer thy foot to be moved;

He who keeps thee will not slumber.

Behold, He who keeps Israel

Will neither slumber nor sleep...

He will keep thy soul. (fm Psalm 121)

Wanting to Borrow Digital Cameras: Needed for a high school photography elective I am teaching at KNCS. Looking for about six – from January 27 to the middle of May. Any kind that works would be appreciated. Will be used in school and at students’ homes. If you have one to lend (please tape your name on it so we can get it back to its rightful owner!) or have questions, please contact me. Thank you!

New Contact Information: Dag, Shayne, and Charlie Boyesen can now be found at 35 Ruen Road, Kempton (which they are currently sharing with Bengt Boyesen). And Dan and Alexandra (Boyesen) Marsh have moved to Dag and Shayne’s former address – 2684 Shady Nook Road, Slatington, PA 18080. We warmly wish everyone well as they settle into these changes.

Got Pork? (New Details): You might not have realized how easy it would be to get a freezer of delicious meat! Only $4/lb. flat rate for a mix of cuts! Quarter, half, or whole pig. Got freezer? If you order a half or whole pig, we'll give you 30% off a like-new chest freezer and deliver both to your door. Please text or email me. Thanks – Lydia Synnestvedt

Weekly Handwork at Old School Village: Wednesdays at 3:00 P.M. (started yesterday). Ladies and girls are welcome to join us in the lounge with their handwork. (There are toys and books for boys and small children to play with while mamas or sisters do their work.) Contact Anna Volden if you're interested in learning how to knit, or bring whatever project or mending you are already working on.

Celebration of Crafts, Handwork, and Feminine Adornment – a Show-and-Tell Tea Party:

2:00 P.M., Saturday, February 5, at the Old School Village lounge. All the ladies and girls in the society are invited. Perhaps someone made you a sweater you love, or your grandmother passed her needlework down to you, or maybe you have a craft you like to do, or a sort of cookie you like to make. Whether decoration, adornment, or food, bring it to show-and-tell about or share. And if you don't have something to share, but you like the idea of getting together to laugh and chat with other ladies, then bring yourself to enjoy the good company and others' artistry. Contact Lydia Synnestvedt or Ayisha Synnestvedt if you're interested in helping out with this, and if you'd like to bring food to share, let us know.

(Repeat) Coffee After Church: If you have thought of helping with coffee after church but have felt intimidated by the prospect of doing the set-up, you could consider taking on helping with just the cleanup part. I am happy to show anyone how. Even a few times a year is a help. Thanks! Kate
