FREEDOM OF CHOICE

Luke 13:19-31

And there was a certain rich man, and he wore crimson and fine linen, making merry splendidly every day. And there was a certain pauper named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate with sores, and longing to be satisfied from the crumbs which fell from the table of the rich man; but even the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass that the pauper died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom; and the rich man also died, and was buried; and in hell, lifting up his eyes, being in torments, he sees Abraham from far off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

And calling out he said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am grieved in this flame.

But Abraham said, Child, remember that thou didst receive thy good things in thy life, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, but thou art grieved. And besides all these things, between us and you a great gulf is fixed, so that they who will to pass from hence to you cannot, neither can they cross over from thence to us.

And he said, I beseech thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

Abraham says to him, They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them. And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead went to them, they will repent.

And he said to him, If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one should rise again from the dead.

True Christian Religion 500

If man could have been created without freedom of choice in spiritual things, what would have been more easy for an omnipotent God than to lead all the inhabitants of the world to believe in the Lord? Could He not have implanted this faith in everyone, both without means and by means, without means by His absolute power and its irresistible operation, which is unceasing in its efforts to save man; or by means, through torments brought upon man's conscience, or through mortal convulsions of the body and awful threats of death, if he did not receive that faith; or still further, by the opening of hell and the presence of devils therefrom holding frightful torches in their hands, or by calling forth therefrom the dead whom they had known, in the forms of fearful specters? But to all this there is a reply in the words of Abraham to the rich man in hell: If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead (Luke 16:31).

PASTOR'S NOTES

Like the rich man in this parable, we have Moses and the Prophets. The Lord gives us the Word and the Heavenly Doctrine. He gives us freedom and rationality. And He loves us too much to force us against our will to live according to His Word. We have to decide to do that. And we have to decide to do that here on earth.

The Lord will not force us to repent through a miracle. That will not change our loves. Only choices from the Lord, based on His Word, will truly make us better people. As the Lord teaches in True Christian Religion, "that which is not received by man in freedom of choice does not remain" (TCR 500).

Freedom is such a fundamental aspect of order that the Lord could not even create us for heaven without giving us the freedom to choose. As we celebrate freedom on the 4th of July this year, we can also celebrate the freedom the Lord has given us to be able to choose Him.

HOLY SUPPER will be offered this month on Friday the 22nd at 6:30 P.M. “When in a holy state a man thinks of bread, as for instance of the bread in the Holy Supper, or of the ‘daily bread’ in the Lord’s Prayer, then the thought which the man has about bread serves the angels who are with him as an objective representative for thinking about the good of love which is from the Lord” (AC 3735).

COMBINED SERVICES in the SUMMER:
Parents, please note that combined services are coming up on July 3 and 24, and on August 7.

These begin with a children’s talk, as with a Sunday School Service, but the children’s talk is not followed by a Sunday School class. Instead, parents are expected to supervise their children in the barn or outside during the adult sermon (making sure people outside are not within the view of worshippers inside). All children, wherever they are, must be supervised by adults to protect them from hurting others or being hurt. Thank you to parents for pulling together to maintain a safe and orderly environment.

In the case of rain, certain indoor spaces may be used in addition to the barn, but please remember that close supervision matters in these spaces that are developed, used, and cared for by those who work in the school. All places should be left as you find them. Available in bad weather only: 1st-2nd, 5th-6th, and 7th-8th classrooms, and the Commons, located on the far (east) end of the school addition.

WOODS / OUTDOOR SERVICES: On Sunday July 31, August 28, and September 25, there will be an indoor 9:00 A.M. Family Service and a 10:00 A.M. Family Service in the woods. If it rains, the 10:00 A.M. Woods Service will be held indoors, and the 9:00 A.M. indoor service will happen as well (this is a change from last summer, when the 9:00 A.M. service would be cancelled on a rainy day).

How to get to the woods: Park at the church, cross the street, and walk down the lane, following the signs. There is also parking in a field at the end of the lane, on the right, for those who prefer not to walk. Please stay on church property (toward the left as you travel the lane), and avoid driving onto our neighbor’s property toward the right.

PASTOR’S COUNCIL MTG. of JUNE 12: We discussed the Klein’s Hill property and what sorts of church uses it could serve. Based on the feedback I received, I have decided that logistical factors as well as the heat of the summer make the current Woods Service location the best place for outdoor worship for now. But I am considering holding a Friday evening Holy Supper at the Klein’s Hill location this fall. Stay tuned for more information on that.

We also discussed various LGBTQ demonstrations that occurred this past spring at educational institutions associated with the General Church. The discussion focused on what we can learn from these demonstrations about how to do things differently here. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

The JUNE 19TH CELEBRATION was LOVELY.

Thank you to Becky and Jordan Cooper and all the volunteers who took part in bringing us such a precious pageant. Thank you also to Heather King and the whole team of people who made the beautiful New Church Day gifts for the children. “The Lord, God Jesus Christ reigns, whose kingdom shall be for ages and ages” (TCR 791).

SUMMER DOCTRINAL CLASSES: We are offering three classes on the 1877 three-fascicle publication called Words for the New Church (the authors were not named).

The readings for the first two classes are attached here. Paper copies can be picked up on the counter at the church office. Readings for the third class will be attached to the August newsletter.

Location: Old School Village lounge, at 7:30 P.M.
Dates (Wednesdays): July 13 (Brett Buick), August 3 (Lawson Smith), and August 17 (Andy Heilman)

Words for the New Church is what got the Academy movement started and led to the establishment of the General Church. (For a further explanation of this, feel free to contact Lawson, Andy, or me.) The prologue begins:

“The Heavenly Doctrines as unfolded in the Writings of Swedenborg we joyously take as our guide in conducting the serial. Indeed as we come into a more searching culture of these Writings, we discover more and more the vastness of their scope. They find us everywhere. And these Doctrines being themselves Divine are the measure of all else...What more therefore can we have...than these grand disclosures which are the final analysis of all that has respect to GOD, and to Man, and to the relation between the two?”

MOVIE NIGHTS & MATINEES AT OLD SCHOOL VILLAGE:

We at OSV invite you watch some movies and TV shows with us during July! Some at night, some in the afternoon. Every family has different standards about what their kids watch. For more specific details about a movie, contact Ayisha Synnestvedt.

- Friday evening, July 1
Mr. Smith Goes to Washington (1939)
6:30 PM - doors open. 7:00 PM - movie starts promptly.

In preparation for Independence Day, we offer this celebration of American ideals. Down-home, idealistic Mr. Smith gets appointed senator by shady politicians who think he'll be too naive to get in their way. But Mr. Smith enters so eagerly into his job that he unwittingly begins to threaten their underhanded schemes. Family friendly apart from some inebriation, but probably most interesting to middle school on up.

- Friday evening, July 8
It Started with Eve (1941)
6:30 PM - doors open. 7:00 PM - movie starts promptly
A son visits his father's deathbed and, unable to find his new fiancée at a crucial moment, hires a baggage check girl to play her for just one evening. Instead of dying, his father shows marked improvement and of course expects to see his supposed future daughter-in-law the next day, and the next. And a very quotable comedy ensues. Family friendly, but check with Ayisha.

- Friday evening, July 15
Amazing Grace (2007)
6:30 PM - doors open. 7:00 PM - movie starts promptly.
This story of William Wilberforce's fight to end the slave trade in the UK is politically fascinating and periodically heart-wrenching. As it includes a lot of Parliamentary debates, and also deals with some rough subjects, we recommend High School on up.

- Saturday matinee, July 23
The Adventures of Robin Hood (1938)
2:00 PM - doors open. 2:30 PM - movie starts promptly.
This Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland movie is deservedly a classic. Fighting injustice and oppression; fabulous costumes and score; epic swordplay -- what's not to love? Family friendly.

- Saturday matinee, July 30
The Life and Legend of Wyatt Earp (1955-1961)
2:00 PM - doors open. 2:30 PM - films start promptly.
This wholesome series was the first TV western geared towards adults as well as kids (i.e. horses get groomed and watered; deaths cause grief; Wyatt actually has a fast draw), and it was soon followed by many others, though Wyatt Earp is modest and gentle compared to the gritty dramas that came after it: there's no cynicism and no gore, though there are plenty of gun- and fist-fights. We'll watch several 25-minute episodes from the Dodge City days. Family friendly. If kids come, Ayisha's stuffed animal Owly will probably host and commentate, as this is his favorite TV series.

Lost and Found: This thing. On the church lawn.
Call church office to claim.

Reminder to KNCS Parents: Deadline for student health forms to be sent to the school office is Friday, August 5. Please be in touch if you can't meet it. Thanks!

Resurrection Services in Bryn Athyn: If you would like to be notified of resurrection services that happen in Bryn Athyn, the KNC office can pass this information along to you. Please contact this office to be added to the email list.

A BIT MORE

Concord Hymn

By the rude bridge that arched the flood,
Their flag to April's breeze unfurled,
Here once the embattled farmers stood,
And fired the shot heard round the world,
The foe long since in silence slept,
Alike the Conqueror silent sleeps,
And Time the ruined bridge has swept Down the dark stream which seaward creeps.
On this green bank, by this soft stream,
We set to-day a votive stone,
That memory may their deed redeem,
When like our sires our sons are gone.
Spirit! who made those freemen dare
To die, or leave their children free,
Bid time and nature gently spare
The shaft we raise to them and Thee.

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Heron Rises from the Dark, Summer Pond

So heavy is the long-necked, long-bodied heron, always it is a surprise when her smoke-colored wings open and she turns from the thick water, from the black sticks

of the summer pond, and slowly rises into the air and is gone.

Then, not for the first or the last time,
I take the deep breath of happiness, and I think how unlikely it is that death is a hole in the ground, how improbable that ascension is not possible, though everything seems so inert, so nailed back into itself-- the muskrat and his lumpy lodge, the turtle,

the fallen gate.

And especially it is wonderful that the summers are long and the ponds so dark and so many, and therefore it isn't a miracle

but the common thing,
this decision,
this trailing of the long legs in the water,
this opening up of the heavy body into a new life: see how the sudden gray-blue sheets of her wings strive toward the wind; see how the clasp of nothing takes her in.

– Mary Oliver

Singing in Chains

“Time held me green and dying Though I sang in my chains like the sea.”

– Dylan Thomas

If the earth's oceans must crawl responsive to the laws of the moon, all seed and soil alter to the sun,
and the old disrupted crust, earth's mantle, work its way in chunks to a changing surface by force of changing heat and the prodding of unnumbered smaller rocks—
this would seem law enough for us to render court.
But natural law derives its course from spiritual law too perfect to observe but by an affirmation of the soul.
Laws, limits, chains direct us in the world—but it is not these that so much chafe as the small dictation of our own desires that never rest, are not seasonal, but wake us with craving every day and order our dreams to slave for excess all the endless nights; until we finally rise hungry for something finer and try our hearts at choosing chains more kind—the hand as in a dance beneath which we consent to bow.

– Janna King

I shall be satisfied with Thy semblance when I awake. Ps 17:15
